The Orpheum tonight.

J. C. Wells arrived from Kaula today.

Rev. Wm. M. Kincaid will soon leave the city for his vacation.

For that tired feeling—take a ride up Pacific Heights.

An automobile race around Oahu is slated as an event for July 4, next.

Dr. Katsunuma returned from Hawaii in the Maui on the Fourth of July.

E. O. Hall & Son have received a large shipment of Rambles. See their ad.

A special term of the Supreme Court will be held. See notice under By Authority.

A Tribune "Blue Streak" was ridden by C. M. Murphy who made the fastest mile on record.

For quick carriage repairing and painting go to the Honolulu Stock Yards Co., Ltd.

Notice that Wong Ung Gat has sold his interest in the Mau Sung Wai Co. appears under New Today.

Fred Berger and one of the Cruzan boys bagged seven goats in the Wai-anae mountains on the Fourth.

Leslie P. Scott has resigned as Deputy Collector of the Custom House. No one has yet been appointed to his place.

The ship Ivy came in from Newcastle yesterday with a full cargo of coal to order. She was 58 days making the trip.

Fred L. Leslie and H. Myhre are candidates for naturalization. Both men are in the employ of the Board of Health.

Dr. M. E. Grossman, the dentist, will return tomorrow from Hawaii, where he has been looking after his landed interests.

Judge Hookano, the original McKinley man of the late Republican convention, is up from Ewa today on private business.

Miss Finckler, one of the corps of Kaula school teachers, arrived in the Kaula this morning. She is here to spend her vacation.

It has been suggested that a second general delivery window be added at the post office without delay. On the Fourth some people were in line an hour and a half.

A young lady quite well known in society here borrowed a $5 Ladysmith hat from a friend, took it down into Chinatown and had a duplicate built for seventy-five cents while she waited.

During the month of June there were issued from the Board of Health office on reports of inspectors 42 "forty-eight hour" notices. Forty-one of the offenders complied with orders without delay. The one other man was hauled into Police Court, convicted and fined.

The Fourth of July was celebrated in grand but rather questionable style at Alea. There was a big luau and yesterday several people appeared in the Police Court of the district on various charges that people are liable to be guilty of after having partaken a little too often of intoxicating liquor.

A native boy, aged about 10, was sent to the Reform School for six months by Judge Wilcox this morning. Evidently the boy had a pleasant time when he was last at the school for he smiled when sentence was pronounced on the charge of disobedience to parents. The mother herself was present and asked that the boy be put under restraint. She could do absolutely nothing in the way of parental discipline. Judge Wilcox expressed a doubt as to the good effect the school would have upon the boy, saying that he would probably sing hymns and practice roguery.
